Dear Sir.

I am the fellow who came over to see you.

I have been thinking about it every since and wondering would I get and answer from you but I guess it's no use my dream want come true

But is there some other team you could advise me to try for if so I would greatly appreciate such information and maybe after I try it I can get the game off my mind and try to find some thing else to do I know you understand how I feel as I am a lover of the game who never got a big chance to play on large ~~now~~ scales.

I want you to know I thank both you and Mr. Graves for trying to help me.

Sincerely
Willard Fudge
